Prayer Requests

Submitted This Past Week Pray for Paula's cousin, Shirley, in the hospital, that she receives healing and salvation. Remember Jose and his wife, Sherry, as they vacation in Alaska and New York with family. Pray for Scott to stay strong while in a drug recovery program and find strength through prayer. Praise the Lord for the comfort He gives to the broken-hearted and weary. Our God is an Awesome God! Pray that Ken's care family will let him come to church again. Pray for Norm and Ricki to find a rental while their home is being restored from flooding. Remember Andrew and Sarah as they care for son Charles after his recent surgery. Pray that the Men's Bible Study grows and that God blesses them with wisdom as they study the Word. Christians in Afghanistan who face increasing danger as the Taliban take over the country. Pray for God's grace in the face of these perils. While the threats are constant, the Church remains.

Continuing Requests Pray for Arleen, suffering from end-stage cancer, and has stomach troubles. Pray for continued healing for Ricki's right eye and for the pain in her jaw. Remember Zachary Fong, suffering from lymphoma, that his chemotherapy is successful and that he will have endurance during treatment. Remember Leslie, Ken and Aaron in care homes. Pray that Gary G. would get approval for neurosurgery. Remember Sharon's niece, Charitie, who has a bad case of COVID-19.

Lunch with the Vo Family today after church. They will be going to Vietnam as development workers with International Ministries. Lunch will be provided to those who pre-registered with Sharon. They will share their story and what they will be doing in Vietnam.

Our Daily Bread devotional booklets for September-November are on the table by the Kinau gate. They are free; take them and use them to develop your devotional life.

After Helping Athletes Choose Life, Allyson Felix Wins More Olympic Medals Than Any Woman in Track History Read her inspiring story posted on the bulletin board next to the Kinau gate.

Pray for Our Country The Biden administration is attempting to remove the religious exemption for medical personnel to refuse to participate in abortions or perform surgeries for gender transition. Some medical workers have already lost jobs for refusing and they are trying to sue to get them back.
