The fifth statement Jesus made from the cross shows

Jesus' _____. but, much more is embodied in these words.

“After this, Jesus knew that everything had been completed. So that the Scripture would come true, he said, ‘I am thirsty.’ There was a jar full of vinegar there, so the soldiers soaked a sponge in it, put the sponge on a branch of a hyssop plant, and lifted it to Jesus’ mouth.” John 19:28&29

“I thirst” shows...

1. Jesus is really _____.

Jesus was fully _____ and He was also fully _____.

“Jesus gave up his place with God and made himself nothing. He was born to be a man and he became a servant. When he was living as a man, he humbled himself and was fully obedient to God, even when that caused his death on the cross.” Philippians 2:7&8

2. Jesus is the promised _____.

“So that the Scriptures would come true, Jesus said ‘I am thirsty.’”

For hundreds of years God gave the Jews _____ concerning the Messiah.

For Jesus to be who he claimed to be He would have to _____ of those prophecies.

There is one last prophecy to be fulfilled, a prophecy about the Messiah being given _____ to drink.

What the soldiers offered Jesus was _____, a standard drink for Roman soldiers.

Pasca was wine that had turned into _____. They would take this wine that was sour and mix it with water and add herbs to make it tasty.

They gave it to Jesus by soaking a sponge in it and putting it on a _____, lifting it up to Jesus’ mouth.

“Take a branch of the hyssop plant, dip it in the bowl filled with blood, then wipe the blood on the sides and tops of the doorframes.” Exodus 12:22 (NCV)
