Prayer Requests

Submitted This Past Week

Pray for Hak Lee, who just lost his wife Sun after 5 year battle with cancer, while having treatment in Korea. Mahalo for our Father and Lord Jesus answering over our prayers & giving us blessings. Praise God for Karen Smith and all our international workers for Jesus especially in Africa and Asia. Continue to bless the efforts to advance God's Kingdom. Prayer for travel mercies for Karen, and also Tony's nephew Stephen, who is flying to Hawaii. Pray to meet the needs of FBC Men's Bible Study, for all participants. Saturday, September 9, is the National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children. Pray to heal the deep wounds of abortion in our society and to encourage the protection of unborn babies and their mothers. Pray for protection and guidance for Richard & Howard as they travel in Sweden and Denmark. Thank you for your prayers for Kerry's son, Matthew. He passed his practical test and is now a new paramedic. Praise God.

Support for Maui! Logos Bookstore has been approached by Maui churches to provide Bibles for their members, especially in the Lahaina area. They contacted their Bible publishers, asking if they can provide free or heavily discounted Bibles for Maui. Logos has received commitments of approximately 1,000 Bibles so far. They would appreciate donations to help pay for additional Bibles and especially for shipping costs to Maui. Mail your donation to Logos Bookstore, 1200 Ala Moana Blvd., Suite 415, Honolulu, 96815. Better yet, stop in at Logos Bookstore in the Ward Centre (main floor) and see what a great Christian bookstore it is!

Our Daily Bread devotional booklet for September-November is now available on the information table in the courtyard. It's a great way to start your day. Please take one before they are gone.
