Prayer Requests

Submitted This Past Week With the wonder of the Holidays, mahalo for Jesus' atonement and marvelous blessings. Thank you, Jesus, that I now spend the time peacefully communing with God not worrying if I'm wakeful during the night. Pray for Edward, who is in the Queen's Hospital because he is aching all over his body. Pray for Ms. Smith that God will shield and protect her body from every attack of the enemy. Praise the Lord. Melissa's friend, Myseere came to the Lord. Continue to pray for healing of his cancer. Remember Tony's mother who is recovering from having a pacemaker placed last week. Praise the Lord for Tony's niece Megan who arrived safely in Hawaii. May she come to know God's purpose in her life. Praise the Lord for a Baptist church in Ohio which is building "tiny houses" for flood victims in North Carolina. They have already delivered 6 to people living in tents. Pray for Patrick that he can get strength, protection, and peace. Praise the Lord for the shoeboxes cover $800, and we received donations of over $2,300 for the Keiki carnival, which was given for the World Mission offering.

Announcements

OCC Tree Please visit our shoebox (Gospel Opportunity) tree in the Social Hall. You are welcome to take the pens and prayer bookmarks. Please take a box and fill it with supplies or drop off supplies under the tree. Remember to take advantage of all the sales including after-Christmas sales. Please return boxes by Jan. 1 even if not completely full. Contact Sharon if you have questions.

Volunteer Appreciation Dinner If you have supported our ministry this year through prayers, financial support or donation of goods or time, you are invited to help us celebrate what God has done this year. In other words, everyone is invited and encouraged to attend. The appreciation dinner will be Friday, Dec. 20 at the home of Sharon Dumas. The pool will be open for those who arrive early. If you need a ride, let Sharon know as soon as possible.
