“So love the Lord God with all your passion and prayer and intelligence and energy.” Mark 12:30. “Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervor, serving the Lord.” Romans 12:11

God wants you to love Him passionately and live life passionately.

Passion is something that you can lose. Luke 5:18-20; 24-26 shares some insight on how passion is restored.

A crowded life keeps us from being close to Christ.

If you want to recapture your passion, do what the friends of this paralyzed man did.

1. DO SOMETHING DRASTIC.

Ask a drastic question...“If you knew you had one month to live how would you live your life?”

Remove obstacles. Decide what’s important and then you cut out the things that are standing in the way.

The really important things in your life are typically not even on your list. These are things that don’t have a deadline and for that reason it’s easy to put them off.

2. EXPECT THE UNEXPECTED.

Things don’t always go as planned.

Instead of tensing up you have to lighten up.

Receive the unexpected gracefully.

When you are stressed and frustrated, it’s often a warning...an alarm that let’s you know you are trying to control something that God didn’t intend for you to control.

3. CREATE GOD SPACE.

In the middle of our crowded, over-scheduled lives we have to create a space intentionally to meet with Jesus.

Jesus had to create space in His schedule so He could meet with His Father. Mark 1:35-38

“Immediately he stood up in front of them, took what he had been lying on and went home praising God.” Luke 5:25 That word immediately speaks to us today about the urgency we need in responding to God.
