Prayer Requests

Submitted This Past Week

Lift up all in our congregation who need healing and medical care. Praise God that Scott has an appointment for further medical treatment in Houston, Texas, this month. Lift up Gloria, Mie, and Paul for continued healing. Prayers for those suffering from property damage caused by the rain. Praise God for all, like our friend Carol Y., who finished the Hapalua Half Marathon with bodies that are wonderfully made by our creator, our God! Pray for Karen's friend Donna, whose mother is beginning to get dementia. Pray for Karen's friend, Jayson, whose father entered a hospice yesterday. Remember Ms. Leila and family as she is healing from surgery. Pray for David's foot to heal and for improvement in his health. Praise the Lord that Crystal's daughter Lace found a job. Pray for Crystal's neighbor, Paul, who was recently hospitalized and is getting cancer treatments. Pray for all world leaders that they make good decisions to bring peace to the earth. Pray that we maintain our God-given peace no matter what is going on in the world.

Submitted The Week Before

Pray for anyone in a difficult relationship that God's Spirit will give them the courage to change. Trust God to show a way out. Pray for God's blessings for long-time friends we see in church today. Hallelujah for all who were baptized today. Keep in prayer our government, unsaved relatives, and those on deployment to the Middle East. Pray for Arizona's short water supply. Thank you, FBCH family; Karen is hired as a PPT at Fem Elementary School. Praise the Lord for the rescue of our fighter pilots. Pray for the safety of the Artemis astronauts as they travel in space.
