Prayer Requests

Submitted This Past Week

Pray for Ida, who is having a hard coping with moving into a new apartment. Pray for God's guidance as the search for the next ABCOFLASH executive minister begins. Remember those who have medical issues: Doris's brother, Carl, who is in the hospital in Pennsylvania; Jenny M., who is in the hospital in Washington DC. Rylan Y., who needs healing of his foot. Pray for Paul's surgery and for Chris's health. Pray for a great Christian college friend of Paul's, John G., from Massachusetts, who is having serious surgery this Monday and Wednesday at Mass General Hospital. Pray for Dave M. in Washington DC, as his wife, Jennie, a former secretary of FBC, is being taken off life support today. Continue to pray for the military and government. May political violence and discord come to an end. Pray that the church continues to grow, and we strengthen as brothers and sisters of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Prayers that we will trust in God to provide for our finances and car repair. Continuing prayers of healing and the work of the Holy Spirit in the lives of friends experiencing homelessness, cancer, liver failure, and medical issues. Aloha to today's visitors to FBCH. Thank you, Jesus, for the multitude of blessings.

Article to Read Recently, The American Baptist Historical Society published an interesting article about what we can learn from Baptist History. Copies of the article are on the mission table.

The Story of Everything We've all heard the story. The universe came from nothing; life came from the chemical soup. Science has shown that belief in God is now obsolete. But what if there's another story? A more truthful story. One based on the evidence and recent scientific discoveries that reveal the intelligent design to life. We can discover a consistent signature woven into the fabric of existence. The film runs April 30-May 6- only at Dole Cannery theaters.
