Prayer Requests

Submitted This Past Week

Pray for Makiko's son Dell's salvation. He has been away from church. Pray for Dell's father, Phil S., in South Texas, who has been suffering from multiple ailments. Pray for his physical healing, comfort, and strength. Continue to pray for Paul's friend John G., who is continuing to have more surgery depending upon the pathology results. Pray that everything goes smoothly for Paul's surgery on May 12th. Pray for America to receive God again. Pray that we unite as children of God, pray for our enemies, and be kind to one another, as Jesus is coming soon. Continue to pray for Scott and his cancer treatments and for Gloria and Stan, who are houseless. Remember Crystal's nephew, Rylan, who is having a procedure done in the hospital this week. Pray for total healing of his foot. Pray that Patrick remembers Almighty God is with him to help him multiply.

Time Capsule In preparation for the August opening of our time capsule which was encased in the courtyard 50 years ago, we will be compiling a membership directory with each person's picture and his /her favorite Bible verse. To be included in the directory, please see Carol White to have your picture taken and submit your name and favorite verse to Sharon by July 12. There are several other activities being planned, so if you would like to help out with our celebration, please see Sharon.

Samaritan's Purse Outreach to Rural America Community Medical Outreach is a new initiative that serves physical and spiritual needs in local communities within the United States. They coordinate closely with local churches to provide dental, vision, and medical care - free of charge -to those in need. More information is on the bulletin board in the courtyard.
