Prayer Requests

Submitted This Past Week

Continue to pray for John G., who is still waiting for full pathology results. Pray for Patrick's healing for further treatment of his eyes and for his upcoming hernia surgery.

Submitted The Week Before

Pray for Makiko's son Dell's salvation. He has been away from church. Pray for Dell's father, Phil S., in South Texas, who has been suffering from multiple ailments. Pray for his physical healing, comfort, and strength. Pray for America to receive God again. Pray that we unite as children of God, pray for our enemies, and be kind to one another, as Jesus is coming soon. Continue to pray for Scott and his cancer treatments and for Gloria and Stan, who are houseless. Remember Crystal's nephew, Rylan, who had a procedure done in the hospital. Pray for total healing of his foot.

Wednesday Night Bible Study We will not meet in June. Bible study resumes July 1. Next Bible study will be based on writings by Chalres Stanley.

Revolutionary America Start your celebration of America's 250th anniversary by seeing this documentary, narrated by Tom Selleck, which tells the story of our Revolution through the eyes of those who lived it. The story of our founding is the greatest political achievement in history. Find out why at the Dole Cannery theaters from May 31 to June 2. And take your children and grandchildren!

Samaritan's Purse Outreach to Rural America Community Medical Outreach is a new initiative that serves physical and spiritual needs in local communities within the United States. They coordinate closely with local churches to provide dental, vision, and medical care - free of charge -to those in need. More information is on the bulletin board in the courtyard.
