Far too many people live life just going through the motions, lacking direction, purpose and excitement.

The Christian life is to be an _____ experience.

“There is a need in all of us, for controlled danger. That is, there is a need for activity that puts us on the edge of life. There are uncounted millions of people right now who are going through life without any sort of real, vibrant kick...” - Phil Edwards

In this life you will face _____. The question then becomes, “What _____ are we going to spend our months and years upon? Are we going to play around on the shore, or are we going to get out where the white water is?”

To dream big you’ve got to be a little _____, willing to take _____ and sacrifice _____.

Don’t pamper yourself into _____ when you could have forgotten yourself into _____.

God has _____ in store but you’ve got to be willing to get out of your _____. Don’t settle for less than _____.
