Christ didn't die for us because we were so _____.

²⁶ Brothers and sisters, look at what you were when God called you. Not many of you were wise in the way the world judges wisdom. Not many of you had great influence. Not many of you came from important families. (I Cor. 1:26-31)

Our need is for those who would say,
"_____."

You are _____ to God and to the ministry of this Church.

"The God of all grace will Himself perfect you, and give you firmness, strength and a sure foundation." I Peter 5:10

From Kimball to Graham

A Sunday School teacher, Edward Kimball, in 1858, led a Boston shoe clerk to the Lord. That clerk, Dwight L. Moody, became an evangelist and in England in 1879 awakened evangelistic zeal in the heart of Frederick B. Meyer, the Pastor of a small church. F.B. Meyer, preaching on an American college campus, brought to Christ a student named J Wilbur Chapman. Chapman, engaged in YMCA work, employed a former baseball player Billy Sunday, to do evangelistic work. Sunday held a revival in Charlotte, North Carolina. A Group of local men were so enthusiastic afterward that they planned another revival, bringing Mordecai Hamm to preach. In that revival, a young man named Billy Graham heard the gospel and yielded his life to Christ.
