Prayer Requests

Submitted This Past Week

Pray for Phil S. in Texas to be kept from illness, accidents, and negativity. Continue to pray for John G., who is going through chemotherapy and radiation. Remember all persecuted Christians in the world. Keep in prayer the car accident that happened this morning on the freeway. Pray for Tanji’s cousin on the mainland, who is having her daughter next month. Pray for a healthy birth for her and the baby. God bless America. Thank you for yesterday, today, and the promise of many tomorrows. Travel mercy for Tony’s friends Aki & Daisuke as they return to Japan for a 12-day stay. Pray that as a family we manage the many blessings God provides us. Blessings and prayers that the USA may go forward and give glory to God. Remember Venezuela, the situation in the Middle East, and Ukraine. Pray for unsaved relatives. Pray for Jammie’s close friend Susan, who passed away, as she begins her new life. Pray for healing for her husband and family. Pray for Rylan’s Aunt, who is under the weather. Pray for the family of Rylan’s friends on dialysis. Pray for Steve, who passed away suddenly on Wednesday. May God bring peace to all involved. Pray for the firefighters and people in the western states who are fighting fires. Thank our Father in heaven for all His blessings in Warren’s life. Pray for Warren’s brother, Patrick, to recover after his surgery on his shoulder.

The Time Capsule will be opened on Aug. 9. Deadlines are approaching! Please complete the contest entry form and have your picture taken for the directory by July 19.

Pau Hana Picnic We will be having most of the Pau Hana picnics at my house this year. The first one will be July 17, at my house at 6:30. I will provide drinks, ice cream, and one main dish. Please bring a dish to share. At that time, we will decide if one of the picnics will be at the beach. Future dates are 7/31, 8/14, and 8/28. (Sharon)
