Prayer Requests

Submitted This Past Week

Lani is healed. Pray for Lei, Opuakehou, and others that they will be blessed, and thank you for the projects that are very impactful. Thanks to the Father in heaven and Lord Jesus. Pray for the families who lost loved ones in the destruction of the World Trade Center Twin Towers 25 years ago; the pain and grief remain. Pray for all affected by the incident for their health, problems, and difficult memories. Praise the Lord: Melissa’s friend at work is doing fine. Pray that she can get to see a specialist regularly. Pray for Nepal and recovery efforts there. Praise the Lord: some were found alive in tunnels. Pray for Rylen, dizziness from dialysis. Pray for Krystal M., who has pain in her shoulder and is not getting sleep. Pray for Gigi, who is undergoing surgery and a procedure. Pray that the Lord will heal and sustain her and also be with Brian, who is taking care of her. Pray for Tony’s mother-in-law, Sandra’s mother, in Singapore. Prayers of support for Tony’s brothers as they settle his mother’s estate, and that God continues to guide their steps. Bless Anna and Chinari studying in Hawaii. Praise the Lord for Scott that he is healed from his brain tumor. Pray that Jane passes her yearly inspection soon.

Shoeboxes This year we are packing shoeboxes in two different ways: The first way is in house as usual. Please bring whatever donations you have to the church and put them in the gray bin under the missions table. Yo yo's, balls, slinkies and jump ropes make good toys. Clothes and school supplies are also needed. See Monica if you wish to assist in preparing the boxes. The second way to pack shoeboxes is online using a computer or cell phone. For the remaining Sundays in September, Sharon will be available in the social hall after church with a computer to assist anyone who wishes to pack a box online. The cost is $30.00. per box. Thanks for living to give.

Pau Hana Potluck Our last Pau Hana get together for this year will be on 9/25. Bring a dish and a friend.
