Prayer Requests

Submitted This Past Week

Keep praying for Sandra’s mother that she will recover from pneumonia in the hospital. Remember Sandra’s family in Singapore, who are caring for Mami. Ask the Holy Spirit to be with Tony’s brother as they discuss their mother’s estate. Pray for Jane to pass the yearly inspection and maintain her weight. Pray that God will heal John G. and David B. Keep in your prayers all persecuted Christians in the world. Pray that Americans have been paying attention to a 250-year celebration of freedom and liberties, as well as the costly devastation 9/11 caused by Islamic radicals. Pray for Amy’s daughter Brittany, Brittany’s youngest daughter Millie, and herself, who are sick with COVID. Also, pray for her brother, who is going to Buffalo soon.

Mission Month September is Missions Month. Normally we encourage you to give your mission offering through Foodland’s "Give Aloha" program. But this year we have learned about an opportunity to make your support for missions go twice as far. A generous donor has committed up to $100,000 to match WMO gifts, dollar for dollar, through September 30. That means $50 becomes $100. A $250 gift becomes $500 for God's mission around the world. To qualify, your gift must be made directly through International Ministries by September 30 at:

<https://portal.internationalministries.org/world-mission-offering>.

If you have any questions about the match or how to participate, please contact Sharon Dumas

Pau Hana Potluck Our last Pau Hana get together for this year will be on 9/25. Bring a dish and a friend.

Aloha from the Whites This is our last Sunday before moving to the Seattle area. We have brought in things which we cannot move, like liquids, cooking ingredients, and a board game, Sorry (with all parts there!) We put them on a table in the fellowship hall. Please feel free to take anything you can use. We move with fond memories of our time at FBC and will miss you all.
