Prayer Requests

Submitted This Past Week
Continue to pray for Flo’s back and trigger finger. Pray for peace in Paul E.’s life, his health, his new job, and arranging schedules between his work and doctor’s appointments. Pray for Warren to overcome the weakness that we have of the world and find the strength to do God’s will in our lives on earth. Praise the Lord. Jane passed her yearly household inspection. She got everything done in time. Pray for travel mercy for Crystal, who is visiting her daughter Lace in California, and also for our visiting friends Pierre, Sarah, and their daughter Leah. Continued prayers of healing for Sandra’s mother, who is in the hospital, recovering from Pneumonia. Praying that Mami has a steady recovery in Singapore.

Shoeboxes This year we are packing shoeboxes in two different ways: The first way is in house as usual. Please bring whatever donations you have to the church and put them in the gray bin under the missions table. Yo yo's, balls, slinkies and jump ropes make good toys. Clothes and school supplies are also needed. See Monica if you wish to assist in preparing the boxes. The second way to pack shoeboxes is online using a computer or cell phone. For the remaining Sundays in September, Sharon will be available in the social hall after church with a computer to assist anyone who wishes to pack a box online. The cost is $30.00. per box. Thanks for living to give.

Our Daily Bread devotional booklets for September/October/November 2026 are available on the table next to the service bulletins.
